Gospel Meditation:

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later?

And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.

— Father John Muir

Meditación del Evangelio:

Me avergüenza admitir que con frecuencia me encuentro cenando y socializando con personas que tienen millones y, a veces, miles de millones de dólares. He comido más caviar, langosta y bistec wagyu que la mayoría de las personas en el planeta. Lo justifico diciendo que es parte de mi trabajo. Pero tengo siete pares de jeans bonitos y zapatos caros.

Por lo tanto, es bastante incómodo escuchar a Nuestro Señor decir: "Hija mía, recuerda que recibiste lo que fue bueno en tu vida, mientras que Lázaro también recibió lo que fue malo; pero ahora él es consolado aquí, mientras que vosotros sois atormentados" (Lucas 16:25). Compañeros ricos (y si eres estadounidense, eres rico), ¿no nos oponemos con vehemencia, aunque en silencio, al sistema de recompensas karma de esta parábola?

¿Por qué bendecir al hombre rico solo para maldecirlo más tarde? ¿Y maldecir a Lázaro solo para bendecirlo más tarde? ¿Entonces los estadounidenses van al infierno, mientras que los burundeses y afganos van al cielo? ¿Qué pasa?

Una pista es que el hombre rico condenado no se queja de la injusticia. Más bien, simplemente ruega ayudar a sus hermanos a arrepentirse. ¿De qué? No lo sabemos exactamente. Quizás otra pista es que el hombre rico ahora se parece más al oprimido Lázaro. Sabe lo que es tener hambre y sed, ser herido en la cuneta; que se merecía eso, no comidas y ropa elegantes. Tal vez el hombre rico finalmente entienda cómo recibir verdaderas bendiciones, pero es demasiado tarde para él. Pero no para mí. No para nosotros.

— Padre John Muir

Buckle Up... we're getting ready for my favorite time of the year!!
The weather will be cooling down soon... (then we can all complain about how cold it is... lol)
All the fall, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas decorations are out and available in the stores (actually they've been out since August!!) And Feast Days!! We have sooo many days to celebrate coming up! It's as if we're having a 2 or 3 month party! So... ENJOY!

This Monday, Sept 29th, we celebrate Sts. Michael, Gabriel, and Rafael (the only angels mentioned by name in Holy Scripture) with the Feast of the Archangels.

Then on Tuesday, we celebrate the Memorial of St. Jerome, a Doctor of the Church.

He translated most of the Bible (OT from Hebrew and NT from Greek and 'Old' Latin) into the more current Latin. His translation is called the Vulgate and is still the source from which all Bible versions are based today.

Not only is October the "Month of the Rosary" (so come to Mass during the month a little early and bring your rosary), but on Oct 7th we celebrate our Blessed Mother as Our Lady of the Rosary.

On Wednesday, Oct 1st, we celebrate the Memorial of St. Therese of the Child Jesus... one of the Doctors of the Church; she is better known as the "Little Flower." In her many writings she advocated a simple lifestyle... saying all things, done with the right frame of mind, can be a prayer to honor and glorify God.

On Thursday, the 2nd, we celebrate the Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels. Angels abound!

We each have at least one to look after and guide us from the moment we are born... to the day we die. Just think of how many angels there must be! Literally billions and billions of them (and more!!)!

Then to top off the week... on Saturday, Oct 4th, we celebrate the Memorial of St. Francis of Assisi.

We have all heard of how he could communicate with the animals! The school children will bring their pets and/or stuffed animals representing them to school on Friday to have them blessed by Fr. Ed.

We also celebrate several Apostles and Popes during the month: St. Pope John XXIII on the 11th, St. Luke on the 18th, St. Pope John Paul II on the 22nd, St. Simon and St. Jude on the 28th,

To round out the month of October... we celebrate "All Hallows Eve" (Halloween) on the 31st... which leads us to our great celebration of "All Saints Day" on November 1st... where we honor and celebrate the Church Triumphant – all the saints in heaven, and "All Souls Day" on November 2nd where we celebrate the Church Suffering – the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

We must 'talk' a little more about Purgatory... maybe in a later 'Corner.'

This just the 'tip of the iceberg' so to speak...

Over the next few months, I invite you all to look at your 'Parish' calendar... I mean really look at it!

Don't just see the numbers (1-31)! See the Saint(s) who are being remembered / celebrated on the different days. If you have access to a computer or even a smart phone... "Google" the saint-of-the-day and find out a little about him or her. There are some beautiful stories out there!

Until next time... God Bless- DT in that every account, every thought, every deed, like every sale, is registered and recorded."*

Healing Holidays Making your Grief Count

Grief during the Holidays is always challenging. The holiday season renews memories, family ties, and traditions. We become painfully aware that our loved one is no longer present, and the pain of our loss is confused with the spirit of the season making it difficult.

How do we allow ourselves in these difficult times, to "make our grief count" and find our grounding?

The Porter Loring Bereavement Office will be presenting a workshop that will help identify resources that contribute to self-compassion and enhance our resiliency. It will help families embrace their grief while strengthening characteristics of resilience... To use the holidays to discover how their loved one can live on into their life story, using this special time to continue to heal.

Wednesday, October 8th from 10 - 11:30 am

There is no charge for this workshop.

Presenter: Cindy Libera, SPX Stephen Minister Leader
