Gospel Meditation:

My childhood best friend was Xander Price. He was the fastest runner in school, an excellent baseball player and Jewish. Though his family wasn't intensely religious, I felt totally at home with them despite our religious differences. Everything about their Judaism seemed to undergird and strengthen my own experience of being a Catholic. I knew they didn't believe in Jesus like my family did, but I intuited somehow that Jesus was "hiding" in their religion. Like a cat moving under a blanket, ready to emerge at any moment, the Lord was hidden there in a special way.

In the Gospel for this third Sunday of Lent, Jesus says, "For if you had believed Moses, you would have believed me, for he wrote of me" (John 5:46). Stunning words, those. Moses wrote about Jesus. The way therefore that we come to know and believe in Jesus is to discover him lurking in Moses' writings. The Hebrew Scripture is the wonderful womb in which Jesus gestates within a host of images: Adam, Isaac, David, Melchizedek, the Temple, sacrificed lambs, prophets and so on. Right now, in your parish's OCIA program, soon-to-be baptized people are carefully studying where Jesus is in the writings of Moses, so that they may believe in him. This works for all of us, too, who wish to deepen our knowledge and love of Jesus.

Lenten challenge: Take some time to prayerfully study one of the images of Jesus listed above in the Old Testament. Identify which one you find compelling and consider why this is so. If you don't know where to start, begin with the prophet Jeremiah as an image of Jesus.

— Father John Muir

Meditación del Evangelio:

Mi mejor amigo de la infancia era Xander Price. Era el corredor más rápido de la escuela, un excelente jugador de béisbol y judío. Aunque su familia no era muy religiosa, me sentí totalmente en casa con ellos a pesar de nuestras diferencias religiosas. Todo lo relacionado con su judaísmo parecía apuntalar y fortalecer mi propia experiencia de ser católico. Sabía que no creían en Jesús como lo hacía mi familia, pero de alguna manera intuía que Jesús se estaba "escondiendo" en su religión. Como un gato que se mueve bajo una manta, listo para emerger en cualquier momento, el Señor estaba escondido allí de una manera especial.

En el Evangelio de este tercer domingo de Cuaresma, Jesús dice: "Porque si hubierais creído a Moisés, me habríais creído a mí, porque él escribió de mí" (Jn 5, 46). Palabras impresionantes, esas. Moisés escribió acerca de Jesús. Por lo tanto, la forma en que llegamos a conocer y creer en Jesús es descubriéndolo acechando en los escritos de Moisés. La Escritura Hebrea es el maravilloso vientre en el que Jesús gesta dentro de una multitud de imágenes: Adán, Isaac, David, Melquisedec, el Templo, corderos sacrificados, profetas, etc. En este momento, en el programa OCIA de su parroquia, las personas que pronto serán bautizadas están estudiando cuidadosamente dónde está Jesús en los escritos de Moisés, para que puedan creer en él. Esto funciona también para todos nosotros que deseamos profundizar nuestro conocimiento y amor a Jesús.

Desafío de la Cuaresma: Tómese un tiempo para estudiar en oración una de las imágenes de Jesús enumeradas anteriormente en el Antiguo Testamento. Identifique cuál le parece convincente y considere por qué es así. Si no sabes por dónde empezar, comienza con el profeta Jeremías como imagen de Jesús.

— Father John Muir

Then Divine Mercy Sunday 2000

25th Anniversary

On the first Sunday after Easter in the Great Jubilee of 2000, Pope St. John Paul II canonized St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the Secretary and Apostle of Divine Mercy.

In the delight of millions worldwide, he also fulfilled the long-repeated request that this day be known and celebrated as the Feast of Mercy, a day of great grace for the entire world.

The Holy Father proclaimed that from then on, the Second Sunday of Lent would be called Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Universal Church.

"The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment."
"Let no soul fear to draw near to me even though its sins be as scarlet."

Now Divine Mercy Sunday 2025

Jubilee of Youth

On Divine Mercy Sunday this year, during the Jubilee Year of Hope, Pope Francis will canonize Carlo Acutis, the first millennial saint who died in 2006 at the age of 15.

An Italian tech-savvy teenager, Carlo is known for his great devotion to the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and has been called the "patron of the internet."

It is hard to imagine that the internet icon of this beloved young saint will be a source of hope, conversion, and revival, particularly among the youth.
