Welcome to St. Thomas More Catholic Church

Thank you for celebrating with us today! We warmly welcome you to our humble place of worship, where we hope you have a loving experience of God. Our Lord Jesus comes to us in word and sacrament as we celebrate his life, death, and resurrection at Holy Mass. If this is your first time visiting, we hope you find a new spiritual home away from home! Founded in 1964, our parish has a long tradition of proclaiming and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sustainable only by your contributions, your generosity is sincerely appreciated. We welcome you, again, and thank you for celebrating with us.

Gospel Meditation:

The famous 20th century St. Padre Pio said once that he would wait outside the gates of heaven until the people in his life had entered. I'm not sure that I, or frankly many people I know, would say that and mean it. Yet that is precisely the kind of attitude we see in Jesus as he prays for us in the Gospel today. Having celebrated the Ascension of the Lord just a few days ago, we now hear the Son of God at the Last Supper pray to his Father "that they may be brought to perfection as one" (John 17:23). What does this mean for us?

I'd wager that we are not surprised that Jesus wants to make us perfect — that is, happy, whole, and healed. The shocker is that he desires this for us collectively and not just individually. Perfection is a team sport. We need each other to be perfect. Jesus is like a mother longing for her adult children to learn how to be in loving support of one another. He wants the perfection of his disciples to be not some individualistic plan of moral uprightness, but a loving communion of brothers and sisters.

Let's apply this practically. Do I see my participation at Mass as something I do merely for my own peace and edification, or as something I do with and for the people around me? Do I see my ongoing need for forgiveness as something that simply makes me feel better, or as a task that heals those around me, too? Is my dearest hope to individually get to heaven when I die, or is it to be part of the great procession of souls, together marching towards the heavenly Jerusalem? Do I want to be in heaven with people I currently find difficult? How would my life change if I did?

— Father John Muir

Meditación del Evangelio:

El famoso San Padre Pío del siglo XX dijo una vez que esperaría fuera de las puertas del cielo hasta que las personas en su vida hubieran entrado. No estoy seguro de que yo, o francamente muchas personas que conozco, diríamos eso y lo diríamos en serio. Sin embargo, ese es precisamente el tipo de actitud que vemos en Jesús cuando ora por nosotros en el Evangelio de hoy. Después de haber celebrado la Ascensión del Señor hace solo unos días, ahora escuchamos al Hijo de Dios en la Última Cena orar a su Padre "para que sean llevados a la perfección como uno" (Juan 17:23). ¿Qué significa esto para nosotros?

Apuesto a que no nos sorprende que Jesús quiera hacernos perfectos, es decir, felices, completos y sanados. Lo sorprendente es que él desea esto para nosotros colectivamente y no solo individualmente. La perfección es un deporte de equipo. Nos necesitamos los unos a los otros para ser perfectos. Jesús es como una madre que anhela que sus hijos adultos aprendan a apoyarse amorosamente unos a otros. Quiere que la perfección de sus discípulos no sea un plan individualista de rectitud moral, sino una comunión amorosa de hermanos y hermanas.

Apliquemos esto de manera práctica. ¿Veo mi participación en la Misa como algo que hago simplemente por mi propia paz y edificación, o como algo que hago con y para las personas que me rodean? ¿Veo mi continua necesidad de perdón como algo que simplemente me hace sentir mejor, o como una tarea que también sana a los que me rodean? ¿Es mi más querida esperanza de llegar individualmente al cielo cuando yo muera, o es ser parte de la gran procesión de almas, marchando juntas hacia la Jerusalén celestial? ¿Quiero estar en el cielo con personas que actualmente me resultan difíciles? ¿Cómo cambiaría mi vida si lo hiciera?

— Padre John Muir

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

*God our Father,
From eternity You appointed Your only begotten Son to be the High Priest of the human race.
Pour forth Your Holy Spirit upon our families, that vocations to the priesthood may be multiplied.
Lord Jesus, give us holy priests:
To offer up the sacrifice of the Mass;
To lead the little ones to You;
To strengthen the faith of believers;
To preach the Gospel to all peoples;
To bring forgiveness to sinners;
To feed souls the Bread of Life;
To comfort the suffering & dying, and
To spread Your Kingdom in our midst.*

*Mary, Mother of our High Priest, pray for us and obtain for us an increase of holy priests.
Amen*

First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion – A child normally makes their First Reconciliation and receives their First Holy Communion in the 2nd or 3rd grade but the same routine applies for persons through 9th or 10th grade. (Preparation for older youths and adults will be addressed under the OCIA)

First and foremost... a person must be baptized in order to receive these or any other subsequent sacraments. You must provide us (STM Religious-Ed program) with a copy of their Baptism Certificate. That being said... there is a 2-year preparation / training period required prior to receiving their First Holy Communion.

The individual must know / understand what and more importantly who they are receiving in the Eucharist.

If attending a Catholic School, preparation takes place during their religion classes.

If attending a public school, the child must attend a parish religious-education program.

Our religious-ed program begins in August each year and usually runs through April/May.

If the child registers late (on/after January 1st) and / or misses half or more of the sessions they will be required to attend a 'catch-up' summer program in order to receive their First Holy Communion on schedule.

Parents are expected / required to attend several group meetings and to actively participate in their child's sacramental preparation.

The final step in preparing to receive their First Holy Communion is participating in the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession).

Parents... please... please... please... do not come to the office and say 'my child will be celebrating their quinceañera in a few months and needs to make their first communion before then.' It isn't going to happen!

Reconciliation and the Eucharist are serious sacraments! They provide us with a share in God's life and kingdom... they prepare us for our own eternal life... they are not party favors.

Need more information? Call the Parish Office, talk to Fr Ed or any of your deacons.

Next week we'll look at Confirmation.

'till then... God Bless- DT

Question: Why do we need to go to Mass every Sunday?

Answer: The heart of the Church's instruction that we are to attend Mass on Sundays goes back to the Third Commandment: "Take care to keep holy the sabbath day as the LORD, your God, has commanded you" (Deuteronomy 5:12). Although the Jewish People celebrate the Sabbath on Saturday, the first generations of Christians began to observe the sabbath on Sunday, recognizing how important it is to celebrate the day that Jesus rose from the dead. As the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults observes, "Sunday extends the celebration of Easter throughout the year ... It makes present the new creation brought about by Christ" (364).

The focus of our Sunday should be the celebration of the Eucharist in the Mass. This is our time to be formed by God's Word and nourished at the table of the Lord, becoming prepared to live out and share our faith in the week that follows. In his encyclical, Dies Domini, Pope Saint John Paul II reminded us that Christians "cannot live their faith or share fully in the life of the Christian community unless they take part regularly in the Sunday Eucharistic assembly" (no. 81). This is why the Church teaches us that Sunday Mass is a non-negotiable part of being a Christian (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2192).

Beyond being a time of worship, we should also remember that Sunday is intended to be a day of rest, when we make time for recreation, for sharing meals, and enjoying the company of friends and family. Sunday is given to us as a day to take stock of and enjoy the blessings that God has given us (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2187). Pope Francis reminded us, "The day of rest, centered on the Eucharist, sheds its light on the whole week, and motivates us to greater concern for nature and the poor" (Laudato Si', no. 237).
