Thank you for celebrating with us today! We warmly welcome you to our humble place of worship, where we hope you have a loving experience of God. Our Lord Jesus comes to us in word and sacrament as we celebrate his life, death, and resurrection at Holy Mass. If this is your first time visiting, we hope you find a new spiritual home away from home! Founded in 1964, our parish has a long tradition of proclaiming and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sustainable only by your contributions, your generosity is sincerely appreciated. We welcome you, again, and thank you for celebrating with us.

Gospel Meditation:

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict, and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man — so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony, and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

— Father John Muir

Meditación del Evangelio:

Un hombre que parecía un poco oprimido se acercó a mí mientras llenaba el tanque de gasolina de mi auto. Él preguntó: "¿Puedo compartir con ustedes mi testimonio acerca de lo bueno que es Dios?" "Está bien", respondí con escepticismo. Continuó diciéndome que había sido alcohólico y drogadicto, y que Dios lo había sanado; Ahora llevaba cuatro años sobrio. Dijo: "No me lo merecía, pero ahora soy una persona diferente. ¡Dios es tan bueno! ¡Que tengas un buen martes!". Unos minutos más tarde, mientras me alejaba, lo vi sonriendo y entregándole algo de dinero a una persona sin hogar. Me enfrenté a una elección: o era un fraude total o Dios lo había cambiado. Algo le había sucedido y no parecía falso. Tal vez fue Dios.

Cuando Jesús sana al hombre ciego de nacimiento, el hombre se convierte en un desafío para todos los que se encuentran con él. Ellos deben decidir. ¿Es la misma persona ciega que conocían antes? ¿Quién lo sanó y cómo? ¿Y cuál es el estatus de aquel que puede sanar tales enfermedades? No debemos sorprendernos por la tormenta de dudas, odio y animosidad que se arremolina alrededor del hombre sanado, por lo que a menudo sucede cuando Jesús sana a alguien, incluso hasta el día de hoy.

Como lo hacemos a menudo, los líderes religiosos que confrontan al hombre sanado declaran que Dios no está obrando. Preguntan con burlona superioridad y desdén desdeñoso: "Naciste totalmente en pecado, ¿y estás tratando de enseñarnos (Juan 9:34). Y lo echaron fuera. Cuando Jesús obra claramente en nuestras vidas, en nosotros o a nuestro alrededor, debemos aceptarlo, y alabar y dar gracias por esta maravillosa manifestación de su bondad.

Desafío de la Cuaresma: Piensa en una forma en que el Señor te ha sanado. Tal vez sanó una forma de egoísmo, una dolencia física o algo más. Esta semana, busca a una persona con quien puedas compartir ese testimonio, y compártelo. No te preocupes si no aceptan que fue Dios quien lo hizo.

— Father John Muir

The Divine Mercy is not just a devotion...
*It is a Way of Life!!

It's not just a "Catholic Thing"... it's for EVERYONE... and, we are all called to assist in its proliferation.

Yes, we pray the Chaplet for the dying. We have Jesus' assurances that when we do this He will be there at the moment of death...

NOT as judge but as Merciful Savior.

In addition to praying for the dying, Jesus tells us that we may pray for ANYTHING! And that we will obtain everything, if what we ask for is compatible with His will. He tells us that He will grant great graces to souls who say this chaplet. And, He promises that those who say this chaplet will be embraced by His mercy during their lifetime and he will defend them as His own at the hour of their death... or others when the chaplet is prayed for them.

The ABC's of mercy call us to Ask for God's mercy, Be merciful to others, and Completely trust in His mercy. In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus tells us, "Be Merciful, just as your Father is merciful." (6:36) As He is merciful to us, we are to be merciful to others.

The spiritual works of mercy include: admonishing sinners, instructing the uninformed, comforting the sorrowful, being patient with those in error, forgiving offenses, and praying for the living and the dead.

The corporal works include: feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless, comforting the imprisoned, visiting the sick, and burying the dead.

Trust is the hallmark of those living the message of Divine Mercy.
Trust is faith in action.

TRUST- T-Total R-Reliance U-Upon S-Saving T-TRUTH,
which is Jesus Christ.
