Gospel Meditation:

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me."

Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing.

— Father John Muir

Meditación del Evangelio:

Perdí mi billetera este año. Fue una molestia reemplazar todo lo que había en él. Un amigo, movido por la simpatía, me regaló uno nuevo y hermoso. Un mes después también perdí esa, con todas mis tarjetas recién reemplazadas. No importa lo que hiciera, no podía encontrar lo que había perdido. Me resigné a no volver a ver ninguna de mis billeteras.

Afortunadamente, el Señor Jesús no es como yo en este sentido. En el Evangelio de hoy (Juan 6:37-40), dice: "Esta es la voluntad del que me envió: que no pierda nada de lo que me dio".

Jesús, a diferencia de mí, está siempre vigilante con lo que el Padre le ha dado. Busca a cada alma perdida, como el pastor deja las noventa y nueve para perseguir a la oveja perdida, o la mujer se regocija al recuperar una moneda perdida, e incluso desciende a las profundidades de la pérdida en la cruz y al reino de los muertos para recuperar lo que parece perdido para siempre.

En el Día de los Fieles Difuntos, al recordar a nuestros fieles difuntos, estas palabras encienden una esperanza más allá de toda esperanza en nuestros corazones. Ni siquiera los muertos están perdidos para Jesús, aunque nos lo parezcan a nosotros. Nada de lo que el Padre le ha confiado se pierde realmente. Por lo tanto, podemos esperar que cada alma, sin importar cuán errante u olvidada sea en la vida, esté segura en su cuidado amoroso y destinada a ser resucitada en el último día. De lo que el Padre le da, no pierde nada.

— Padre John Muir

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

*God our Father,
From eternity You appointed Your only begotten Son to be the High Priest of the human race.
Pour forth Your Holy Spirit upon our families,
that vocations to the priesthood may be multiplied.
Lord Jesus, give us holy priests:
To offer up the sacrifice of the Mass;
To lead the little ones to You;
To strengthen the faith of believers;
To preach the Gospel to all peoples;
To bring forgiveness to sinners;
To feed souls the Bread of Life;
To comfort the suffering & dying, and
To spread Your Kingdom in our midst.*

Mary, Mother of our High Priest, pray for us and obtain for us an increase of holy priests.

Amen

Question: What do Catholics believe about the resurrection of the dead?

Answer: Every Sunday, we proclaim in the Creed that we believe “in the resurrection of the body.”

Does that mean Christ’s resurrection or our own? Both! Jesus’ resurrection is part of the work of salvation, but it’s also a sign of what’s to come. While death separates our bodies and our souls, this was not the intention of God when He first created us. It’s an effect of original sin. At the end of time, our bodies and our souls will be reunited.

Scientifically, we may have questions about this, since bodies decompose over the course of centuries.

Or what about the saints, whose relics are spread around the earth? How the resurrection will happen is a mystery. But we know that our resurrected body will be our body. If we are in heaven, our body will be in a glorified state. Some theologians speculate what this glorification will be like based on Jesus’ resurrected body. Will we be able to walk through walls? Will we eat, since Jesus broke bread with his disciples?

We don’t really know the answers to these questions. We do know, however, that we will be free from the effects of the fall (such as sickness and pain) and physical defects that occurred in life.

Christ redeems us as whole persons, body and soul!

Pregunta: ¿Qué creen los católicos sobre la resurrección de los muertos?

Respuesta: Todos los domingos, proclamamos en el Credo que creemos “en la resurrección de la carne.” ¿Significa eso la resurrección de Cristo o la nuestra? ¡Ambos! La resurrección de Jesús es parte de la obra de salvación, pero también es una señal de lo que está por venir. Si bien la muerte separa nuestros cuerpos y nuestras almas, esta no era la intención de Dios cuando nos creó por primera vez. Es un efecto del pecado original. Al final de los tiempos, nuestros cuerpos y nuestras almas se reunirán.

Científicamente, podemos tener preguntas al respecto, ya que los cuerpos se descomponen a lo largo de los siglos. ¿O qué pasa con los santos, cuyas reliquias están esparcidas por la tierra?

Cómo sucederá la resurrección es un misterio. Pero sabemos que nuestro cuerpo resucitado será nuestro cuerpo. Si estamos en el cielo, nuestro cuerpo estará en un estado glorificado. Algunos teólogos especulan cómo será esta glorificación basada en el cuerpo resucitado de Jesús.

¿Seremos capaces de atravesar muros? ¿Comeremos, ya que Jesús partió el pan con sus discípulos?

Realmente no sabemos las respuestas a estas preguntas. Sin embargo, sí sabemos que estaremos libres de los efectos de la caída (como la enfermedad y el dolor) y de los defectos físicos que ocurrieron en la vida.

(18 years or older) who has

This initiative provides us with a meaningful opportunity to pray for vocations, recognize the gifts and potential for leadership and service within our parish community, and encourage individuals to consider sharing their gifts through the priesthood or religious life.

We invite you to recommend him or her by completing the response card which is available in the church. Please place the completed card in the collection basket next weekend or return it to the parish office.

It is just amazing to me how God “talks” to us!! With our celebrations of All Saints Day and All Souls Day, I was thinking well... it may be a little late but something about our dearly departed... and praying for them might be in order (anyone who knows me knows I am an advocate for the Holy Souls in Purgatory and intercessory prayer / indulgences for them). Thank you for the suggestion God.

Then... getting a little lazy I realized it would be a l-o-n-g article and would / should probably cross over 2 or more weeks... and I started having second thoughts. Then, while “making the rounds” saying hello to people before Mass one day a lady approached me and asked if I knew about Purgatory.

Of course I said I was aware of it... she then stated that someone (a priest) had told her (in a group) that Purgatory did not exist. But she was sure that it did and that it was our last chance to repent and would decide if we were going to heaven or hell. I was somewhat taken aback... and told her that if a soul was in Purgatory they were going to heaven... it was just a matter of time (of course there is no time in purgatory / eternity but for us on earth we think time). She also asked about Limbo but Mass was ready to begin and I had to get back with Father. I haven't seen her since. Yes, Lord, I hear you.

Ok- I began thinking about a Purgatory topic again but once again... on the back burner. Then out of the blue, someone gave me a DVD titled “PURGATORY, the Forgotten Church.” Yes, God, I get the picture!! So I began to pray a little more... a little harder... wondering ‘Is this for real? Or, am I just setting things up to write a l-o-n-g Deacon's Corner?’ I prayed and asked Our Lord for just one more sign... something I couldn't manufacture myself (should I even be asking for a sign?? After all... the initial inspiration... the woman in church... and the DVD... weren't these signs enough?)

Well... you're not going to believe this but some friends and fellow parishioners visited me in the office. They had a question... “Is Purgatory real?” It seems they had recently attended a Rosary / funeral service for a friend and the priest, in his homily, told everyone to forget everything / anything they may have been taught about Purgatory... it does not exist! We all pretty much go to heaven because Jesus died for our sins! (at least I think that, or something similar, is what was said...).

Anyway... I thank you Lord, God!! You can quit beating me over the head now. We may have to wait until next week to really get into this but get ready for Purgatory-101. In addition to Purgatory we may “hit” on Suffering as well. Another friend told me we are here on earth to suffer. We may as well talk a bit about that also.

Sorry... I was hoping to really get into this topic a little deeper today but the intro “stuff” seemed important to share.

‘till next time... God Bless- dt

What's an ESA? For many Catholic families, tuition has felt just out of reach. That changes in 2026 with Texas's new Education Savings Account (ESA) program.

Families may receive approximately $10,000 per child, per year to cover tuition and approved education costs.

Catholic schools are more than classrooms - they are communities of faith where Christ is at the center of academics, service, and prayer. Both new and current families can benefit.

¿Qué es una ESA? Para muchas familias católicas, la colegiatura parecía fuera de alcance. Eso cambia en 2026 con el nuevo programa de Cuentas de Ahorro para la Educación (ESA) en Texas.

Las familias podrán recibir aprox. $10,000 por hijo, por año para cubrir colegiatura y gastos educativos.

Las escuelas católicas son más que salones de clase - son comunidades de fe con Cristo al centro del estudio, el servicio y la oración. Familias nuevas y actuales pueden aprovecharlo.
