Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 19, 2025

Welcome to St. Thomas More Catholic Church

Thank you for celebrating with us today! We warmly welcome you to our humble place of worship, where we hope you have a loving experience of God. Our Lord Jesus comes to us in word and sacrament as we celebrate his life, death, and resurrection at Holy Mass. If this is your first time visiting, we hope you find a new spiritual home away from home! Founded in 1964, our parish has a long tradition of proclaiming and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Sustainable only by your contributions, your generosity is sincerely appreciated. We welcome you, again, and thank you for celebrating with us.

Gospel Meditation:

A friend invited me to an invitation-only wine-tasting event. There were over two hundred varieties of wine. Having no idea how to approach such a massive selection, I wandered aimlessly among the tables, sipping this and that. At the end of the evening my friend asked if I had tried some of the exceptionally expensive wines. I hadn't. "The really good stuff disappears first," he said. "My man, you missed out on some amazing vino." I was so disappointed. I wasted my chance for amazing once-in-a-lifetime wine. The wine I tasted was, well, blah.

Don't we often feel a similar disappointment in life? I missed this or that opportunity. If only I had known. Optimism sputters and fades. The glory days are gone. The chances, it seems, for the really great things in life come and go so quickly. Then they are gone forever. The good stuff goes first. Then life is just blah.

Not so with the Lord Jesus. In Jesus' miracle at the wedding at Cana, the steward of the feast says, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then...an inferior one" (John 2:10). That's the natural downward progression of life. The good stuff disappears quickly. But he says of the groom (who symbolizes Jesus), "But you have kept the good wine until now." This is the ever-improving trajectory of the realm of God's grace. With Jesus, the "good wine" of divine love, hope and peace gets better as our journey of faith progresses. Where are your greatest disappointments? Don't give in to the lie that the really good stuff is gone. Tell Jesus you've run out. Then learn how to taste that amazingly good wine, because he saves the best until now.

— Father John Muir

Meditación del Evangelio:

Un amigo me invitó a un evento de cata de vinos al que solo se podía acceder por invitación. Había más de doscientas variedades de vino. Al no tener idea de cómo abordar una selección tan masiva, deambulé sin rumbo entre las mesas, bebiendo esto y aquello. Al final de la noche, mi amigo me preguntó si había probado algunos de los vinos excepcionalmente caros. No lo había hecho. "Las cosas realmente buenas desaparecen primero", dijo. "Hombre, te perdiste un vino increíble". Estaba tan decepcionado. Perdí mi oportunidad de tomar un vino increíble y único en la vida. El vino que probé fue, bueno, blah.

¿No sentimos a menudo una decepción similar en la vida? Perdí tal o cual oportunidad. Ojalá lo hubiera sabido. El optimismo chisporrotea y se desvanece. Los días de gloria se han ido. Las oportunidades, al parecer, para las cosas realmente grandes de la vida van y vienen muy rápido. Luego se van para siempre. Lo bueno es lo primero. Entonces la vida es simplemente blah.

No es así con el Señor Jesús. En el milagro de Jesús en las bodas de Caná, el mayordomo de la fiesta dice: "Todos sirven primero el buen vino, y luego... uno inferior" (Juan 2:10). Esa es la progresión natural hacia abajo de la vida. Lo bueno desaparece rápidamente. Pero él dice del novio (que simboliza a Jesús): "Pero tú has guardado el buen vino hasta ahora". Esta es la trayectoria cada vez mejor del reino de la gracia de Dios. Con Jesús, el "buen vino" del amor divino, la esperanza y la paz mejora a medida que avanza nuestro camino de fe. ¿Dónde están tus mayores decepciones? No cedas a la mentira de que las cosas realmente buenas se han ido. Dile a Jesús que has salido corriendo. Luego aprende a degustar ese vino increíblemente bueno, porque guarda lo mejor hasta ahora.

— Father John Muir

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.

Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.

May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

Amen

It Takes All Kinds

St. Therese of Lisieux wrote,
"If every flower wanted to be a rose, spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today?
One obvious answer springs to mind....
Yes, God wants you to be a good person
(father/mother, husband/wife, friend).

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. One who has the gift of knowledge may fail if he decides he wants to be a healer. One who has the gift of healing might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana... the servers, the guests, the bride and groom... They all had a unique role to play. Although it was to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be servers.
Ask yourself: Do you carry out God's instruction, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem? We asked to be His disciples... bearing witness and giving testimony. We are called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself... giving encouragement to one another to follow God's word.

Examine your gifts and listen in the silence of your heart to the direction of the Spirit.
Then... Do whatever He tells you.

Bottom line... God is asking us all to be a saint!
But remember... He already has a St. Therese... a St. Francis... etc.

What He is looking for now... is a St. YOU!
God Bless-

YOU ARE JOYFULLY INVITED

I'm a firm believer in the KISS (Keep It Simple Stupid) principle!
 I was thinking... How can I express the concept of Jesus' Real Presence in the Eucharist to someone who doesn't believe? When talking to an adult about the Real Presence we'd normally jump right into the Gospel of John, Chapter 6 to be more specific, and go from there.
 But... in keeping with the KISS principle... I asked myself... "How could you explain the Real Presence to a 6-year old?" That's the question that's been rumbling around in the back of my poor little mind for a while now... I think the approach for both an adult... AND a little one might be similar.

First... I think we need a little more background information. Ask... do you believe in God? (that's a must or you've got a little more work to do). Then, Talk about God for a bit... How He's all powerful, all knowing, all loving, etc. Review what He did in the beginning. He created the universe, the earth, all the plants and animals... he created man (Adam and Eve). Remind them how we, mankind, had it made but we strayed and were forced to leave the Garden of Eden. But how God loves us so much that He didn't leave us with nothing... He promised to send someone to save us - His Son.

All throughout the years... from Adam and Eve until the time Jesus was born, God was with His people guiding them and working with them... even when they didn't listen or live the way He wanted them to. Then, at the proper time, Jesus was born - Jesus, the Son of God... Jesus, God Himself in the Second person of the Blessed Trinity!

Look at all the things Jesus did: He changed water into wine; He walked on water; He calmed storms; He multiplied a few loaves and fish to feed thousands! He cured the sick the paralyzed and the lame; He cast out demons; He forgave sinners! He even raised the dead back to life! There was nothing He couldn't do!

Jesus told His followers that He was the Bread of Life... The Living Bread that came down from heaven and that whoever would eat his flesh and drink His blood would have life. Many of his followers had a hard time with this. But, He didn't water-down what He said. He simply asked if they couldn't believe in Him... were they going to leave?

Then, at the Last Supper, He took bread, blessed it giving thanks and glory to the Father. He then gave it to the Apostles and told them "Eat, This is my body." Then he did the same with a cup of wine saying, "Take and drink, This is my blood." Now, if we believe that Jesus really is God... and we believe He really did all those things we looked at just a second ago... Don't you think He could change bread and wine into His body and blood?

If He isn't God... If He is lying or crazy or something... then everything we believe... everything every Christian has believed for the past 2000 years is wrong!

After changing the bread and wine into His body and blood, He told the Apostles to "... do this in memory of Me." We don't do this just to "REMEMBER" Him! We REMEMBER Him in so many other ways... all those things mentioned above plus His Passion and death on the cross... and the Resurrection. This "Remember" or "In Memory Of" is prefixed by the phrase / words "DO THIS" - meaning change this bread and wine into my body and blood!

Jesus knew that His time had come and He wanted this celebration (this Mass) to continue after His death. But, it wouldn't make any sense to just pass this 'gift only' to the Apostles and have them be the only ones able to perform this miracle. They would all die before long, too. He was building His Church and He would want this miracle to continue until the end of time when He would return. So, as the Church grew and matured (got older), it was too big for the 12 apostles to do it all so they appointed others as their helpers and successors - other elders / bishops - and in turn they appointed helpers (priests) to service all Christian disciples.

So, when the Bishop or Priest says the words of Consecration, he speaks 'in persona Christi' - (in the person of Christ) It's Jesus Himself, in union with the Holy Spirit, changing the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus... just as at that first Mass - the Last Supper.

I think that looking at it this way... and looking at all the Eucharistic Miracles that have taken place all around the world and all through the years (simply Google: Eucharistic Miracles), we have to agree that it is really Jesus... the Real Presence of Jesus... present in the bread and wine - body and blood - consecrated at Mass.

What do you think? Think this will work? Give me your thoughts / ideas.

'till Next Time... God Bless- DT
